

DANCE

Artist: Garth Brooks (Tony Arata)

Intro G

Verse 1

Looking back on the memory
But for a moment
How could I have known

Of the dance we shared 'neath the stars above
All the world was right
That you'd ever say good-bye

Chorus

And now, I'm glad I didn't know
Our lives are better left to chance
But I'd have had to miss the dance

The way it all would end, the way it all would go
I could have missed the pain

Verse 2

Holding you, I held everything
But If I'd only known
Now who's to say

For a moment wasn't I the King
How the King would fall
You know I might have changed it all

Chorus

So now, I'm glad I didn't know
Our lives are better left to chance
But I'd have had to miss the dance

The way it all would end, the way it all would go
I could have missed the pain

Outro

Yes, our lives are better left to chance
But I'd have had to miss the dance

I could have missed the pain
