

HARD ENOUGH

Author: Brandon Flowers

Intro B C#_m E B
Verse 1

You let me into your life on a whim
E B
In loving I was just a little boy
F# A^b_m F# E F#
All I know is that I'm older now
B
Some people think that it's best to refrain
E B
Their hearts are filled with holes and emptiness
F# A^b_m F# E F#
Well I promise that I'm older now

And there was magic and fire in the night
C#_m E B
I made mistakes that caused you so much pain
C#_m E B
From the conventions of old fashioned love
E B
They tell themselves that they're too young to settle down

Chorus

And this has been hard enough on you
A^b_m E
Been telling myself that I can roll with the changes
A^b_m E F#
Darling don't you see
B
It's been hard enough on me

I know it's been hard enough on me
F# B
And when the water gets high above your head
A^b_m E F#
While this has been hard enough on you

Verse 2

I wasn't looking when we built these walls
E B
Let's not let time's bitter flood rise
F# A^b_m F# E F#
I think I'm getting older now

Let me spread my dreams at your feet
C#_m E B
Before my thoughts begin to run

Chorus

And this has been hard enough on you
A^b_m E
Been telling myself that I can roll with the changes
A^b_m E F#
Darling don't you see
B
It's been hard enough on me
A^b_m

I know it's been hard enough on me
F# B
And when the water gets high above your head
A^b_m E F#
While this has been hard enough on you

Bridge

I can't stand the thought of another
E A^b_m E F#
Where would I be tonight if you hadn't held me here, in your arms...

Talking to you sweet my dear
A^b_m E B E F# B E F#
Oh...

Chorus

Outro B C#_m E B (Fade out)
