

HOME FOR A REST

Author: Spirit Of The West

Verse 1

A<sub>m</sub> G
We arrived in December
C G
We stayed in the bars
A<sub>m</sub> G
We never saw nothin'
C G
Kept the shine on the bar

C F
And London was cold
F G
Along Charing Cross Road
C F
But brass taps and oak
F G
With the sleeves of our coats

Chorus

G
You'll have to excuse me
G
I've been drunk since I left
C F
I'm so sick from the drink

C G C F
I'm not at my best I've been gone for a week
G C G
These so called vacations Will soon be my death
G C
I need home for a rest

Verse 2

A<sub>m</sub> G
Euston Station
C G
In the buffet car
A<sub>m</sub> G
Past old crooked dikes
C G
We were flung into dance

C F
The train journey north
F G
We lurched back and forth
C F
Through Yorkshire's green fields
F G
As the train jiggled and reeled

Chorus

Verse 3

A<sub>m</sub> G
By the light of the moon
C G
Her rare old perfume
A<sub>m</sub> G
She'd tease us and flirt
C G
Then walk us on home

C F
She'd drift through the streets
F G
So seductive and sweet
C F
As the pubs all closed down
F G
And deny us a round

Chorus

Verse 4

A<sub>m</sub> G
The gas heater's empty
C G
The spirits we drank
A<sub>m</sub> G
I'm knackered again
C G
And don't lift my head

C F
It's damp as a tomb
F G
Now ghosts in the room
C F
Come on sleep take me soon
F G
'Til the twelve bells of noon
