

LAST MORNIN'

Author: Dr. Hook and the Medicine Show

Intro D A D

Verse 1

D
This is the last mornin' that I wake up in this dirty city
A
Looking for the sunshine as the buildings block the skies

This is the last mornin' that I wash in rusty water
D
Tryin' to shave a face that I don't even recognize

Bridge 1

D
Down the hallway rats are skitterin' I can smell the garbage rottin'
G
Hear the children cryin' in apartments down below
A
This is the last mornin', that I'm gonna have to listen to it I'm going home, yeah
D

Verse 2

D
This is the last mornin', that I try to breath the heavy air
A
Fight the crowds, avoid the traffic, watch the world turn grey
This is the last mornin' that I drink my coffee standing up
D
Smile and speak to strangers who just turn and walk away

Bridge 2

D
This is a tough cold city here And I'll guess I'll never cut it here
G
And I'm so tired of tryin' to stand against it all alone
A
This is the last mornin', that I'm gonna have to fight it I'm going home, yeah
D

Verse 3

D
This is the last mornin' that I wear these greasy overalls
A
Punch the clock and do just what I'm told to get along
And face the long evenin', layin' close beside my radio
D
Imaginin' the kisses of the girl that sings the song

Bridge 3

D
Down below the subway's screaming As I lay here halfway dreaming
G
Looking at the ceiling, wondering where, the dream went wrong (where, where)
A
This is the last mornin', that I'm gonna have to think about it I'm going home
D
I'm going home I'm going home I'm going home
