

LINDSAY'S LAST DANCE

© 2009 Ronald J. Davison

Author: Ron Davison – 7 (June 2009)

Intro D C G D

Verse 1

D
The phone call
D
The tragic words
D D_{sus2} D
And a need to pray

C G D D_{sus2} D
Breaks the normalcy of the day
C G
Echoing the fragility of life

Bridge

D_m A₇
A young life taken in her prime
D_m A₇
A mother's grief burned into memory

D_{sus2} D_m D_{sus4} D_m
Too soon
D_{sus2} D_m D_{sus4} D_m
Lives ruined

Chorus

D_m
A tragic moment
D
The senses go numb
D
The answers won't come
D C G D D_{sus2} D
One more time

C G D D_{sus2} D
Life turned on a dime
C G D D_{sus2} D
Healing takes time
C G D D_{sus2} D
I just wish we could see you dance

Verse 2

C G
The empty spot on our stage
C G
Watching an old video
C G
It's obvious you feel the music inside

F A_m
Replaced by an image forever young
F A_m
Seeing you dance to U2's One
F A_m G
We can only hope that your dance is never done

Verse 3

D C G D D_{sus2} D
Lindsay was and always will be a dancer
D C G D D_{sus2} D
Her stage has changed and we may never have our answer
C G
But we can take strength in a father's words
C G
You're in the best place you can be
C G
We'll remember you You remember us
D C G D D_{sus2} D
And where life takes us We'll see?

Epilogue

D C G D D_{sus2} D
Lindsay, you are deeply loved
C G D C G D D_{sus2} D
And I truly do wish we could see you dance one more time
D C G D D_{sus2} D
With any luck, maybe we will

Bridge D_m A₇ D_{sus2} D_m D_{sus4} D_m (as above)
Outro D_m A₇ D_m D_{sus4} (vh, slowing)

A young life taken in her prime Too soon

