Intro B<sub>m</sub> A G

Verse 1

I lived next door to a preacher's daughter We used to play tag and I always caught her
We were much too young to even understand That a love was growing, guiding our hands

Chorus

Oh, oh, oh, you little angel Oh the things you do to me
Oh, oh, oh, life's a game And girl there's so much more yet to see

Verse 2

The years went by fast as we both grew up She had a beautiful body that I loved to touch
Oh, I always felt better when she was around And cried at night, whenever she left town

Chorus

Oh, oh, oh, you little angel Oh the things you do to me
Oh, oh, oh, life's a game And girl there's so much more that we can be

Verse 3

If her father knew just what went on In the back of my van just before dawn
In those precious moments at the height of love I think he'd lose his faith in the man above

Chorus

Oh, oh, oh, you little angel Oh the things you do to me
Oh, oh, oh, life's a game And girl you know you mean so much to me

Outro B<sub>m</sub> A
