

NINA

© 2009 Ronald J. Davison

Author: Ron Davison – 5 (June 2009)

Intro G C D

Verse 1

G	D	C	G
Early morning, sitting alone	In a stairwell in the downtown core
C		G	A <sub>m</sub> F D
Searching through thoughts	Clouded by news from the night before

Bridge 1

C	G	C	G
Each warm memory, shrouded in pain	Each simple feeling, feeding the strain
F		D
The tears are there	Imprisoned by society's views
F		D
A false projection of strength	Based on society's rules

Bridge 2

F	G	C	G F	G
A friendship separated by	Distance not feelings	Gone, but not forgotten
F		G	F	G C D
The chance to say goodbye	Lost for no apparent reason	Lost, but thought of often

Verse 2

G	C	D	C	G
Time has passed	The words weren't passing to paper	Denial the main reason
C	G	C	G
To put the feelings in print	Embodies acceptance
F	D
A realization that she's really gone
C	G	C	G
Putting the words down now	Brings the pain and tears all back
C	G	F	D
A necessary step to dealing with and getting my own feelings back on track

Bridge 3

G	D	C	G
The old pictures, freeze her image in time	Through memories she'll live forever
F	A <sub>m</sub>	G
Through feelings, she'll always be with us through time
F	A <sub>m</sub>	G
Nina, as a friend, your end's a crime

Verse 3

G	C	D
Searching for something again	Fighting the urge to cry
C	G	C
Waiting for the New Year in silence	Greeting the New Year alone
F	D
Waiting alone for Auld Lang Syne

Outro

F	A <sub>m</sub>	G
Nina, as a friend, the end's a lie
F	A <sub>m</sub>	G
Sit down, reflect on our lives and ask ourselves why
F	A <sub>m</sub>	G
Nina, I just hated to say goodbye
F	A <sub>m</sub>	G
Nina, I wish I could've said goodbye

