

Patti's Fight

Ron Davison, Trans. Benjamin Knorr (SOCAN) 2014

Verse 1: It's been thir - ty - one ye - ars__ we must've done some - thin' right we raised three beau - ti - ful daugh - ters Don't you think they're worth the fight?__ We've made our mis - takes__ We've made our own breaks__ We've lived our__ lives no re - grets, no re - takes__

Chorus 1: That's why I'm ask - ing you to fight for life__ The batt - le is yours the fu - ture's your right, The stru - ggle's your own__ But you're ne - ver a - lone You're sur - roun - ded by fam - il - y This life is your own__ and you're ne - ver a - lone

Bridge: I don't like__ where this pain is lea - ding you__ to

Copyright © 2011 Ronald J. Davison

219

G Bm A

All the choi-ces you make go-ing for-ward are what you, must do I just

224

Bm A G C A

hope you find your peace but still get to live your dreams_____

Form: Intro V1 Ch1 V2 Ch2 Br Ch3 Outro

Verse 2:

These last few years are scarred with chronic pain
 The dark cloud lingering slowly driving you insane
 You have your good days you fight through your bad days
 You have your spirit keep up the fight every day

Chorus 2:

You know I keep asking you to fight for life
 The battle is yours the future's your right
 The struggle's your own but you're never alone
 You're surrounded by family this life is your home and you're never on your own

Chorus 3:

That's why I'll keep asking you to fight for life
 The battle is yours the future's your right
 The struggle's your own but you're never alone
 You're surrounded by your family this life is your home

Outro:

Don't you know you're home, never alone, never on your own