Intro E B D A G C

Verse 1

E Look at this photograph
 B How did our eyes get so red
 A And this is where I grew up
 B I never knew we ever went without
 A And this is where I went to school
 B Criminal record says I broke in twice
 A I wonder if it's too late
 B Life's better now than it was back then
 A Oh Oh Oh... Oh God I, I

D Everytime I do it makes me laugh
 E And what the hell is on Joey's head
 D I think the present owner fixed it up
 E The second floor is high for sneakin' out
 D Most of the time had better things to do
 E I must have done it half a dozen times
 D Should I go back and try to graduate
 G If I was them I wouldn't let me in
 E

Chorus

E Every memory of lookin' out the back door
 D I had the photo album spread out on my bedroom floor
 E It's hard to say it, time to say it
 B Good-bye, Good-bye
 E Every memory of walkin' out the back door
 B I found the photo of the friend that I was looking for D It's hard to say it, time to say it
 A Good-bye, Good-bye

Instrumental E B G A E

Verse 2

B Remember the old arcade
 D Blew every dollar that we ever made
 A The cops hated us hangin' out
 E They say somebody went and burned it down
 B We used to listen to the radio
 D And sing along with every song we'd know
 A We said some day we'd find out how it feels
 E To sing to more than just the steering wheel
 B Kim's the first girl I kissed
 D I was so nervous that I nearly missed
 A She's had a couple of kids since then
 G I haven't seen her since God knows when
 A Oh Oh Oh... Oh God I, I
