ROCK 'N ROLL DREAMS

Author: Meat Loaf (Jim Steinman)

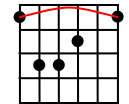

Intro A_m F C G

Verse 1

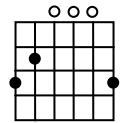

A_m
You can't run away forever
F C G
But there's nothing wrong with getting a good head start
A_m F
You want to shut down the night, you want to shut down the sun
G
You want to shut away the pieces off a broken heart

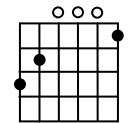

F

G

G₇

Verse 2

A_m
Think of how we'd lay down together
F C G
We'd be listening to the radio so loud and so strong
A_m F
Every golden nugget coming like a gift of the gods
G G₇
Someone must have blessed us when he gave us those songs

Bridge 1

C A_m
I treasure your love I never wanna lose it
F C F G
You've been through the fires of hell And I know you've got the ashes to prove it
C A_m
I treasure your love I want to show you how to use it
F C F G
You've been through a lot of pain in the dirt and I know you got the scars to prove it

Bridge 2

F G A_m F G A_m
Remember everything that I told you and I'm telling you again that it's true
F G A_m
When you're alone and afraid and you're completely amazed
F G
To find there's nothing anybody can do Keep on believing and you'll discover, baby

Bridge 3

C A_m
There's always something magic There's always something new
F C F G
And when you really, really need it the most, that's when rock 'n roll dreams come true
C A_m
The beat is yours forever The beat is always true
F C F G A_m
And when you really, really need it the most, that's when rock 'n roll dreams come true... for you

Verse 3

A_m
Once upon a time was a backbeat
F C G
Once upon a time all the poets came to life
A_m F
And the angels had guitars even before they had wings
G G₇
If you hold on to a chorus you can get through the night
