

SOMEBODY WAITS

Author: Blue Rodeo

Intro G A_m C D G

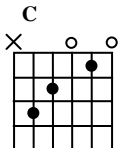

Verse 1

G Now I think I know why You sounded so strange on the telephone
 G But it's hard A_m C When you discover D G What keeps you going, keeps you all alone

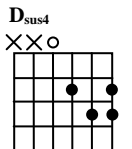

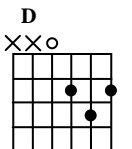

Pre-Chorus 1

E_m A dream so near D I thought the smoke might never clear
 E_m And hide it all behind D D_{sus4} D Endless cigarettes and tears

Chorus

G E_m Somebody waits C D For the time I know it never comes
 B_m E_m You get yourself so high C D D_{sus4} D And you come down feeling blue
 G E_m One day you wake up C D And realize you've had enough
 B_m E_m A thousand shining moments C D C B_m A_m G Waiting just to happen to you, to you, to you, to you

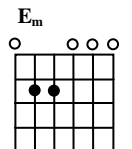

Solo E_m D E_m D D_{sus4} D

Verse 2

G Wait A_m C D G Until you're stronger No sense starting when you're down so long
 G Well it takes my heart A_m C D G A little longer To see the point of finally letting go

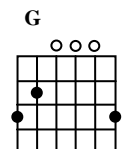

Pre-Chorus 2

E_m You lose your touch D Out there standing in the rain
 E_m When it's all too much D D_{sus4} D You feel like slippin' down again

Chorus

G E_m Somebody waits C D For the time I know it never comes
 B_m E_m You get yourself so high C D D_{sus4} D And you come down feeling blue
 G E_m One day you wake up C D And realize you've had enough
 B_m E_m A thousand shining moments C D C B_m A_m G Waiting just to happen to you, to you, to you, to you

Outro Repeat chorus, fade out
