

SONG FOR A WINTER'S NIGHT

Artist: Sarah McLachlan

Intro F

Verse 1

F C B^b F
The lamp is burning low upon my table top
F C B^b F
The air, the air is still in the silence of my room

F C F
The snow, the snow is softly falling
F C F
I hear, I hear your voice softly calling

Chorus 1

F C B^b C
If I could only have you near
F C B^b F
I would, I would be happy just to hold the hands I love

A_m D_m B^b C
To breathe, to breathe a sigh or two
C F
On this winter's night with you

Verse 2

F C B^b F
The smoke, the smoke is rising in the shadows overhead
F C B^b F
I read again between the lines upon each page

F C F
My glass, my glass is almost empty
F C F
The words, the words of love you send me

Chorus 2

F C B^b C
If I could know within my heart
F C B^b F
I would be happy just to hold the hands I love

A_m D_m B^b C
That you, that you were lonely too
C F
On this winter's night with you

Verse 3

F C B^b F
The fire is dying now, my lamp is getting dim
F C B^b F
The morning light steals across my windowpane

F C F
The shades, the shades of night are lifting
F C F
Where webs, where webs of snow are drifting

Chorus 1

F C B^b C
If I could only have you near
F C B^b F
I would be happy just to hold the hands I love

A_m D_m B^b C
To breathe, to breathe a sigh or two
C D_m C
On this winter's night with you

Outro F C F

And to be once again with you
