

TEX-MEX (CRYSTAL BLUE)

Author: John Cafferty & The Beaver Brown Band

Intro C G F C

Verse 1

C G
There's a little town in Texas where the Interstate runs on through
F G C
The little princess danced for her daddy's charms back in sixty two
G
And her momma told her that someday she'd meet her man
F G C
The prettiest bride from the Red River to the Rio Grande

Chorus (twice)

F
Close your eyes now Crystal Blue
G
Make one wish and all your dreams come true
F G
Wear those yellow roses in your hair
F C F
And that lone star of Texas will always shine just for you
G F C
It's true, pretty little Crystal Blue

Instrumental C G F C

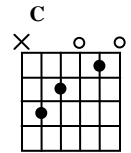

Verse 2

G
In that little Spanish Chapel in the hills down in San Antoiné
F G C
She pledged her heart one Sunday morning and had a man of her own
G
Western Union came the day his country called on him to play his part
F G C
Now late at night she lays awake a hero's medal held close to her heart

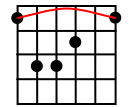

Chorus (twice)

F
Close your eyes now Crystal Blue
G
Make one wish and all your dreams come true
F G
Wear those yellow roses in your hair
F C F
And that lone star of Texas will always shine just for you
G F C
It's true, pretty little Crystal Blue
G F C
Cause, it's true, pretty little Crystal Blue
