

YOU AIN'T GOT THE RIGHT

Author: Dr. Hook & The Medicine Show

Intro

Chorus 1

You ain't got the right to tell me I'm not lonely You don't understand what I've been through
E B A E A B
She had every right to do the wrong that she done to me
A E B A B E
And that don't make it easier to lose And that don't make it easier to lose

Verse 1

I woke up Wednesday morning with the feeling she was gone And I turned to face an empty place
E A D E A
And I realized That I didn't smell no coffee And all her pretty clothes was gone
B A E C#m
I cried the first of the many tears You'll see me crying from now on
D B

Chorus 2

And you ain't got the right to tell me I'm not lonely You don't understand what I've been through
E B A E A B
She had every right to do the wrong that she done to me
A E B A B E
And that don't make it easier to lose And that don't make it easier to lose

Verse 2

I know her list of lovers was just as long as mine But the sometime plan of a natural man
E A D E A
Is to settle down But the one time ways of that woman had done busted up my mind
B A E C#m
Well she's out the door She's got one more on her list Than I got on mine
D B

Chorus 2

And you ain't got the right to tell me I'm not lonely You don't understand what I've been through
E B A E A B
She had every right to do the wrong that she done to me
A E B A B E
And that don't make it easier to lose And that don't make it easier to lose

Verse 3

It's gonna be a long time 'fore I come this way again I been dragged through school and I learned the rules
E A D E A
And it seemed to me That a woman love to do you but she won't always do you nice, no, no
B A E C#m
Yes, she had her turn, I guess I learned You know she ain't gonna do me twice
D B

Chorus 3

And you still ain't got the right to tell me I'm not lonely
E B A E
You don't understand what I've been through
A B
She had every right to do the wrong that she done to me
E B A E
And that don't make it easier to lose And that don't make it easier to lose
A E B A B E
