

OPS-11

Yearly Revenue, $

Data extracted from the available online reports

Is Big Oil Really Subsidizing Friends of Science?
Certainly doesn't look like it (since they're not).

I would be more concerned about the motivations of Big Green and their lack of scientific justification.

Very simply, the Friends of Science organization runs on volunteer support from experienced scientists, engineers and citizens that are concerned about the economic future we're leaving for our children and the lack of scientific integrity in the "Climate Change" discussion.